What kind of coverage is it?

It is a collective policy stipulated by Ferrari S.p.A. (Contractor) for the benefit of all customers of the Pilot Course organized and run by Ferrari S.p.A. It covers pecuniary losses resulting from being unable to take part in the Ferrari S.p.A. Pilot Course for those reasons listed below, limited to the cost of the Course.

What is covered?

Pecuniary losses, limited to the cost of the Course, resulting from being unable to take part in the Ferrari S.p.A. Pilot Course due to:

- ✓ Death, hospital admission, illness or injury of Insured, a member of his/her family (relative or relation by marriage up to the second degree if not living together, or of any degree if living together, more uxorio partner) or sole course/travelling companion;
- ✓ Serious damage to Insured's home or business headquarters, such to require the Insured's presence;
- ✓ Inability to reach the course location due to natural disasters or other natural events, provided that over 50kms from the course location;
- ✓ Inability to reach the course venue due to unprogrammed strikes provided that over 50kms from the course location;
- ✓ Insured is called by a Judge or other Judicial Authority and thus unable to reach the course location in time.

What is not covered?

Reasons for cancellation related to:

- ✗ Pre-existing illnesses, including recurring illness, that occurred in the 12 months before the Ferrari S.p.A. Pilot Course was booked;
- ✗ Pregnancy dependent pathological states beyond twenty-six weeks of gestation and puerperium;
- ✗ Planned strikes communicated before the policy was stipulated and/or that take place within 50 kms of the course location and/or not allowing direct access to the course location;
- ✗ Theft, robbery, loss of identification and/or travel documents;
- ✗ Situations of armed conflict, riot, invasion, acts of foreign enemies, hostility, threatened war, civil war, rebellion, revolution, uprising, martial law, military or usurped power, or attempted military coup;
- ✗ Closure of airports for whatever reason, except strikes not planned before the policy was stipulated and over 50kms from the headquarters of the Ferrari S.p.A. Pilot Course;
- ✗ Natural events or disasters that took place within 50 kms of the Ferrari S.p.A. Pilot Course location and/or not allowing direct access to the course location;
- ✗ Events resulting from volcanic ash;
- ✗ Epidemics and pandemics, including quarantines, as declared by the World Health Organization or other appropriate local authority, except for the case the Insured became infected with Covid-19 within 14 (fourteen) days before the beginning of the Course;

This list is exemplary only and is not exhaustive. For the complete list of exclusions, see the insurance conditions.

When does the coverage start and when does it end?

The coverage takes effect from the date of inception communicated by the Contractor until 24.00 on the day before the beginning of the course.

When and how do I have to pay?

The coverage is provided free of charge in conjunction with the Pilot Course run by Ferrari S.p.A.

How can I report a claim?

The report of each Claim must be submitted to the Insurer or the Intermediary to whom the Policy is assigned, or to the agent chosen by the Policyholder and recognized by the Insurer.

In the event of a claim, the Insured may file a written complaint by:

- registered letter to: Chubb European Group - Claims Office - Via Fabio Filzi, 29 - 20124 Milan;
- e-mail to: Pilot.course.cancel@chubb.com

The Claim, to be submitted within 15 days of the event resulting in the cancellation or when the Insured is in a position to do so, must indicate the location, date and time of the event. The Insured must provide those certificates, prescriptions and documents requested by the Insurer to assess the Claim, providing consent to the processing of personal data.

The Insured may be requested to undergo medical examinations and tests carried out by the Insurer's representative; in this case the relative expenses shall be at the latter's cost.
